

God Made Saul King (1 Samuel 11)

Dear Alliance Kids families,

Gilgal was a place the Israelites knew well. It was the first place their ancestors set foot in the promised land; the place where they built a memorial of 12 stones after crossing the Jordan with the ark of the covenant; a place that they looked back on and remembered the power, greatness, and provision of God. Gilgal wasn't a place of convenience, but rather a place of significance.

Have you ever taken the time to revisit places of your past? Maybe you've driven past your childhood home and school, your first home, or the hospital where a family member was born. These nostalgic journeys can bring back all sorts of memories of heartbreak and victory, sadness and joy. Revisiting the past might flood your heart and mind with things you had long forgotten as well as things that can never be forgotten.

In the fast-paced world we live in today, we don't go back often enough. For many, thinking about the past only slows down productivity. We rely on timeline photos as reminders but then quickly scroll to the news of the day and our plans for tomorrow.

What if we regularly returned to the past? What if we frequented the memorials of God's power, greatness, and provision? It may be that part of why we run so hard after the tyranny of the urgent is because we've lost sight of God's faithfulness through the ages.

It may not be a nostalgic drive through your hometown or a trip to the mountaintop where you were first gripped by the greatness of God, but a stroll down memory lane recalling the work that God has done is so very good for the soul.

The Israelites didn't return to Gilgal because it was easy. They returned to Gilgal because amid their present circumstances, they needed to remember. And so do we.

Reflect on the great things that God has done—the ways you've seen His power, greatness, and provision. And as you do, let it grow your gratitude and hopefulness. For, as James 1:17 says, "Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, who does not change like shifting shadows."
